

Blue Pumpkin Productions
in cooperation with Worcester Hibernian Cultural Foundation
presents two performances only of Marc P. Smith's newest play,

"Karski"

The riveting story of Polish Resistance hero, Jan Karski, described as the man who tried to stop the Holocaust. Stories of resistance are just now being told, nearly 65 years after the end of World War II. Karski's courage and chutzpah are finally revealed.

Photo: Jan Karski, 1944

Wed., Thur., April 14, 15, 2010 @ 8:00 p.m.

at The Hibernian Cultural Centre/Fiddlers' Green Pub, 19 Temple St., Worcester

"Riveting...Marc P. Smith is a man with a moral artistic purpose...It's an important work." *Telegram & Gazette

"Karski' is simply extraordinary. I hope many others will have the opportunity to see it." *Michael True, Professor Emeritus, Assumption College

General admission: $15; members of Blue Pumpkin Productions: $12; Students (with I.D.): $10. Reserve now. Inquire about special group rates (10 or more). bluepumpkinprod@verizon.net or 508-757-1472